News Flash:

The 23rd running of the SSCC takes place just one week after Patriot Day and we will honor all military, both past and present.

Let me know if you are or were military, when you served and how you became involved with the SSCC via email.

This event we have Captain William Keogh as our Grand Marshall.

Capt. Keogh is a first time participant who first heard about the SSCC from an old racing DVD, "Best of J.D.M Option International" when Daijiro Inada ran his Nissan 350Z. Since then, he has wanted to compete in the SSCC.

The University of Colorado at Boulder graduate became a commissioned officer through the ROTC program. He has served in the US Army for three years. In 2008 he was an infantry platoon leader in Southern Bagdad and is now on his second deployment in Afghanistan for the past 8 months. He is currently the Executive Officer for Forward Support Company, 3-187 Infantry Regiment, 101st Airborne (Air Assault) Division based out of Ft. Campbell, Kentucky. He will be attending the event on his much needed R&R.

When asked who is preparing his 1995 Acura NSX while he is overseas, Will says "My dad is currently taking it out on Sunday drives to keep the oil running. I will be putting together the rest of the interior and engine mods myself when I get back beginning of September so that it's all ready to go for SSCC!"
