Some ORR Veterans have put together a small website with tips and helpful information to those looking to get started in ORR events. It's called ORR Aid and contains links, advice and several downloads that will help you get started. In addition, you should visit the various web sites for events, like the Silver

State Classic Challenge

Big Bend Open Road Race

, and the

Sandhills Open Road Challenge

. There you can find many other pieces of information such as rules, course information, local info, and more.
