

Dates for 2010 Sandhills Open Road Challenge

Posted by asajay - 2009/10/19 04:12

August 12-14, 2010. This is one of the most friendliest of the ORR events during the year. This town really opens up and welcomes the racers. Team Pantera Racing is invited to the same lodge, free of charge, every year. This is a great event and one to add to your bucket list.

Asa,

I'll second everything you've said about this race! Appears the only hard part of this event is the entry. So many racers send in their registrations on the first day it can be postmarked that any entries sent in later are bound to be stuck on a waiting list :(Yes, it's definitely a popular event!
